The Revolutionists

Oct 20 - 29 by Lauren Gunderson

Four beautiful, badass women are reimagined as the heroes of the French Revolution in this passionate and provocative new girl-powered comedy. Think Tina Fey and gal pals in big wigs and corsets! Witty and wise, imaginative and inspiring, watch these women turn HIS-tory into HER-story!

My Mother's Clothes Are Not My Mother

Nov 10 - 19 by Elizabeth Peavey

When Elizabeth Peavey's mom passes away, she has to figure out what to do with her mother's things. So begins this famed Maine writer's funny and poignant journey that takes her both forward and backwards as she sorts out the contents and memories of a life.

A Christmas Carol

Dec 8, 9, 10 adapted by Christopher Schario

Six actors and a fiddler perform the Dickens out of this beloved holiday classic in a way you've never imagined and will never forget! Children 18 and under only $5!

FLY ME TO THE MOON

Jan 26 - Feb 4 by Marie Jones

Lucy and Ethel become Thelma and Louise when two Irish home care nurses find themselves in a hilarious series of misadventures on the wrong side of the law when their elderly patient is found – or isn't found – dead.

Marjorie Prime

Mar 16 - 25 by Jordan Harrison

With the help of artificial intelligence, an elderly woman gets her husband back – back when he was young and handsome - to keep her company. This fascinating play, a Pulitzer Prize finalist, explores the mystery of memory and the limits of what and who technology can replace.

The Midvale High School 50th Reunion

May 4 - 13 by Alan Brody

What if you revisited your past and it changed your future? In this charming romantic comedy, a reunion unexpectedly turns an old friend into a new love.
